

University of Mississippi
eGrove

---

Correspondence: Anti-integration

James Meredith Collection

---

June 2019

K to James H. Meredith (Undated)

Author Unknown

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr\_anti

---

Recommended Citation

Unknown, Author, "K to James H. Meredith (Undated)" (2019). Correspondence: Anti-integration. 70.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr\_anti/70

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Anti-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

*enclosure -
no return add.*

Nigger James H. Meredith:

CONGRATULATIONS! you have won admission to the University of Mississippi. I wonder how you feel now of this deed you have done and the lives of the two people you have taken.

Why don't you ask your self the following questions.

1. Do I sleep well at night?
2. How well does people know my name?
3. Who wants me to be thier friends?
4. Can I walk the streets in this country free?
5. Will the people welcome me in town?
6. Will the Kennedy brothers always be in office?
7. Will the marshals always be with me?
8. Can I enjoy the beauty of those around me?
9. Will I always feel safe and secure?

If you can not bear to answer these questions, please note there is 9, maybe the 9 men in Washington will answer them for you.